

Closet Case (Robert Rodi Essentials)

The riotous follow-up to Rodis cult hit Fag Hag, Closet Case turned the genre of the gay coming-out story inside-out and upside-down. Long out of print, this 1993 comic tour de force now returns to delight and enlighten a whole new generation. Lionel Frank is a workaholic account executive at an upscale advertising agency, in charge of the uber-masculine All-Pro Power Tools account. But Lionel has a secret lifeone spent huddled in his car, dialing phone-sex numbers like 1-800-BOY-TOYZ, or lurking in the shadows of gay strip clubs with his flamboyant hairdresser friend, Tone. When continued professional success forces a choice between his two lives, Lionel decides to bury his sexuality forevera task easier said than done. His increasingly calamitous cover-ups finally reach critical mass at a clients retreat on a Wisconsin lake, where Lionelwhos always said hed rather die than come outfinds himself facing a situation where the choice is exactly that.
